1. Which of the following can be used for commenting a piece of code in Python?

   1 / 1 punto

   Select all the correct answers.

   ☑ (#) - Hashtag

   > ⊘ Correcto
   > Correct! Hashtags is used for commenting.

   ☐ ({ }) – Curly braces

   ☐ (@) – at sign

   ☑ (''' ''') – Triple quotations

   > ⊘ Correcto
   > Correct! These are called as docstrings and used for commenting.

2. What will be the output of running the following code:

   1 / 1 punto

```
1    value = 7
2    class A:
3        value = 5
4    a = A()
5    a.value = 3
6    print(value)
```

   ⦿ 7

   ◯ None

   ◯ 3

   ◯ 5

   > ⊘ Correcto
   > Correct! This will be the output for value.

3. What will be the output of the following code:

   1 / 1 punto

```
7    print(b.bravo)
```

○ No output

○ 5

● Error

○ 3

✓ Correcto
Correct! NameError: name 'B' is not defined.

4. Which of the following keywords allows the program to continue execution without impacting any functionality or flow?

1 / 1 punto

○ break

○ skip

● pass

✓ Correcto
Correct! It can be used in class, function declarations as well as conditional statements.